IN KENTUCKY

The Kentucky who considers it a disgrace to be a Republican in Kentucky are any more in favor of negro equality than the white Democrats of the State, but the tendency of the Republican party is in that direction. The Republican press of the North does not find terms hard enough to condemn the white people in the South because they loath negro rape fiends. These continued attacks upon the South for its protection of its women against lecherous and brutal negroes will not stop the application of the rope to every such scoundrel when captured, but it is a lesson to the South as to how the North regards the negro. They are infaming the passions of the colored man purposely by creating in their minds the idea that they are badly treated.

THE NEGRO QUESTION

We do not believe that the majority of the white men in the Republican party in Kentucky are any more in favor of negro equality than the white Democrats of the State, but the tendency of the Republican party is in that direction. The Republican press of the North does not find terms hard enough to condemn the white people in the South because they loath negro rape fiends. THE CATTLE TRADE

The Lexington Gazette, in speaking of the sale of export cattle says: "The activity is the same which usually strikes the Blue Grass region this season of the year, and the farmers are yearly satisfied with the values which are being realized. Kentucky buyers last year at this time were worth about eight cents a pound in Louisville, while this year they are bringing only five cents. Some of the best steers that can be secured are selling around $45, against $75 last year at the same time. For that reason breeders have little incentive to rush their sales and are holding with greater persistency than usual, in hopes that the offering of the season and the foreign demand will enable them to dispose of their holdings at better values than they can now get. The cattle raised in the blue grass region of this state are the most superior that exporters can secure, as they make buyers of a superior quality and will stand shipment with greater hardihood than the run of cattle purchased elsewhere."

HUGEL PROOF COFFIN

The body of Horatio B. Tuttle, of Nagsburg, Conn., a millionaire who was buried this week, was placed in a coffin which was a masterpiece of art and science. The coffin was made of solid oak and was so constructed that once the lid was shut and locked it could not be opened until after several hours of work, unless dynamite was used. Because of this it was deemed advisable to take all precautions against thieves. The lid of the vault is fastened with twelve automatic locks and bars, and to open the vault it would be necessary to saw through every bar. This work could only be done by hand, and would require twenty-four hours to accomplish. As another precaution against grave robbers a watchman was placed over the grave by night. He sleeps under a tent near the grave, and is fully prepared to resist any attempt to remove the body from the vault.

In last week's issue of the Spectator a full column was devoted to showing up the Editor of the News. That article contains four distinct charges, namely: That we hate and despise the Spectator, that we discontinued the paper and ordered our advertisement out of it when it changed its politics in 1890; that we established the News to drive the Spectator out of business; that we appeal to you to vote for Mr. Rollin Hunt for Circuit Judge. The full weight of that article is intended to stir up a feeling against the News, to induce Republicans to stand firm for their publication and to bid the bayonet to it. It goes back to the grave of 1890 and seeks to unseat a ghost to frighten and prejudice the intelligent reading people of this section against the News. It has all along been a willing worker to keep up prejudice, to pitch sneers at us and malign, traduce and vilify the entire Democratic party, and it is no worse to-day than twelve months ago. No man who fails to see as it sees, who has convictions and courage, but fails to indorse its policy or support its party, can hope to shun its violent denunciations. It seems willing to rob the grave of forgetfulness, to work in the myer of discord and dissension of our people to advance its interest and serve its party bosses. It preaches the doctrine that Democrats are thieves and denounces the Democratic press as Gobielt organs of misrepresentation. The editor of the News has watched its course and deemed its policy, believing that no man, no paper has a right to measure the honesty and good intentions of free and untrammelled Kentuckians. We answer the charges above named as follows: First, our feeling for the Spectator is not so warm as for a brother. It is not hatred; it is not envy, but disgust. Second, we were not taking the Spectator when it saw the vision of 1890, but did settle with the publisher for our advertisement which was discontinued at that time. The people of this town and county will remember that the first issue of that paper after the change contained a cartoon in which the Democrats were represented as a pack of bound chasng capital from this county. We spared accounts and have no further apology. Third, we established the News, believing it a good business venture and hoping to accomplish good for our town and this section of the State. Up to date we have no regrets for this act. Whether it has been of worth to the moral, industrial and social advancement of this section, we leave with those familiar with its efforts and acquainted with the changed conditions of our county and town. We recognize our inability to change the political conditions of this county, State or nation, but feel that it is not a crime to appeal to the intelligence of this district to vote for Mr.

Rollin Hunt, a lawyer, a gentleman of known ability, who possesses every qualification in the highest form, so essential to the discharge of the duties of important office as Circuit Judge. His only sin is that he is a Democrat, although his opponent has a longer Democratic record, having fought the Republican party from its cradle on through its varied stages of existence down to 1890. Then keeping house for the Old Bourbon Democracy he somehow fled from it, and by the use of modern methods, known to the people of this district, he received the nomination from the party he has so forcefully denounced from boyhood days until time has wrinkled his forehead, whitened his hair, dimmed his sight and partially destroyed his hearing. No man in all this country has a stronger, straighter Democratic record than Hon. H. C. Baker. No man has ever had cause to beat back the onward march of Republicanism. When Democracy was strong and powerful he sought its honors and received them. Political conditions have changed here, the infant in the cradle of 1890 which withstood his deathly stroke, has become a giant and he seeks to become its master, relegating old time leaders. It is for the people of this section to determine whether the News dwells in the realms of hatred and abuse, or whether its fight have been the outcome of unwarranted attacks.

BE ON THE ALERT.

S. W. Hager, Chairman of the State Campaign Committee, writes us as follows: The Democrats should not be fooled as to the methods of the Republican State Campaign Committee. The Chairman of the Republican Committee is Dr. W. Godfrey Hunter, whose way of conducting a campaign is unique. He goes his secret maneuvers at the Galt House in Louisville and is conducting the campaign of his party behind closed doors. He is endeavoring to create the impression throughout the State that the Republicans are disgruntled and are taking no interest in the election. He is also endeavoring to create a he impression among the Democrats that Belknap has no chance and that his followers have practically given up the fight. However, it is learned from absolutely trustworthy sources that Dr. Hunter is using all his skill to effect a complete organization in every precinct in the State and that all of this is being done with the greatest secrecy and with the employment of all the dark lantern methods known. It is also learned from the same sources that the Republicans have a larger campaign fund this year than ever before and they are relying on simply buying the majority for Belknap in order to get this State in line in the Presidential race in 1904. Realizing the importance of the fight this fall, the Republican National Committee has sent thousands of dollars to Kentucky and this vast sum has been greatly augmented by subscriptions from big corporations and by contributions of the Federal Machine, which, contrary to law, has forced minor employees of the government to give money from their salaries. It has long been Dr. Hunter's boast that he can carry Kentucky if he has the money to buy the votes. The Democrats in the coming election should show Dr. Hunter that the Republican party, backed by the National administration, the corporations and the Federal Machine cannot buy the affections of the people of Kentucky. They should show him that it makes no difference to what extent the State is flooded with money that the vote of the Commonwealth cannot be purchased and that they believe in majority rule. The Republican party organs all over the country in the present financial crisis are playing politics by calling J. Pierpont Morgan several varieties of names. He certainly has been taking "tumble" at this particular time. Nevertheless, some little consideration should be shown by staid politicians for the creatures of its own creation.

Mr. Belknap and the westerner went to Greensburg yesterday.

It is believed that the race for the Republican nomination for Congress in this district will come between Edwards and Hunter. It is given out that the Republicans of Kentucky, in Washington, and the Administration, favor Edwards. The Committee met at Junction City yesterday. The Democrats of this State should be diligent and watchful. The Republicans will use all the means they can command to bring out their full strength. Let no Democrats stay from the polls on the day of election. We want the largest majority given for years.

Very large crowds continue to meet Gov. Beckham at every speaking. At Somerset, last Friday, the number was estimated at 7,500.

GLENNVILLE.

Mrs. J. S. Chapman, who has been confined to her room for several months with paralysis, is no better. Mrs. W. L. Taylor has been quite sick for several days, but is now improving. We understand that Mr. E. H. Rosenbaum has purchased Mrs. Chitra Wesley's property and will remove to our town in the near future. Mr. Jas. W. Marshall and Mrs. Cytha Marshall have exchanged farms and will remove to their new home. Mr. John Neat, Republican candidate for Circuit Clerk, was here a few days ago. He had but little to say concerning his candidacy, but seemed to think that a man as well acquainted and as popular as he is from no one to Little Lake, would not be likely to have opposition in this county. Mr. Joe C. Foltz, one of our neighbors, died on the evening of the 24th, after a severe illness of several days. His remains were laid to rest in the Heim cemetery, about one mile from this place, where they had been attending the State Convention. Prof. R. E. Montgomery was at home Saturday and Sunday. Mrs. Vina Royce visited her sister at Gadsby last Saturday and Sunday for revision weekly.

GLENNVILLE NO. 2.

We had a good rate on the 1st and plowing for wheat has begun in earnest. Albert Johnson is now a citizen of our town, having recently moved to the L. S. Taylor property which he bought some time ago. Capt. J. S. Chapman suffered a slight stroke of paralysis on the 1st inst. He is able to travel about some and we hope he will soon recover. H. K. Walpus has been nominated by the Democrats of this managerial district, as a candidate to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the late W. C. Loy. Mr. Walpus is a man noted for framer and skill, sound judgment and his respect for law and order. When elected he will make one of the best justices that has ever served this district. PONT HILL. The health of this community is very good. Hon. Rollin H. Hunt, candidate for circuit judge, delivered a nice, smooth, enthusiastic speech here the 30th. S. C. Neat, traveling salesman, was here to-day. E. G. Atkins made his regular trip to this place last week. The new church building and Masonic hall at Friendship are near completion. J. H. Smith, this place, and Robt. Smith, Irvine Store, have just returned from the city where they bought their new fall goods. Farmers are busy sowing wheat, few being through. J. H. Smith and G. T. Rerroat were visiting H. McBeath, Wayne county, last week. The young people's social at Russell Springs last Saturday night was largely attended and all report a nice time. The writer, in company with Mr. R. P. Smith attended a social last Thursday night at the home of Mr. A. R. Foley. The new church at Friendship will be dedicated the third Sunday in October by Rev. J. H. Atkins of Danville. Pont Hill Lodge met at their hall on the fourth Saturday at 2 p. m. There were representatives present from A. Hoch, Middletown, Newell, Sever, Russell and Columbia Lodges.

MILTOWN.

Smith & Nell passed through this place with a large drove of cattle this week. Mrs. Willie McKen returned home last week. Several from this community attended the Wagener-McChaffee wedding last Thursday. Mrs. Lela Bumgarner and little son are visiting Mrs. Bettie Wagener in Columbia this week. Miss Hallie Johnston is visiting Miss Hettie Tutt. Miss Bettie Thomas and brother, Charlie, entertained quite a number of their friends last Tuesday night. Those present were: Misses Emma Browning, Sallie Dobney, Nellie Morcer, Myrt Leftwich, Lela Sniley, Sate Johnston, Nora Sandidge, Mont Thomas, Kate Calhoun, Vera Thomas, Mary and Emma Hatcher, Ella Ridd, Mamie Moore, Ora Pollard, Carda Brookman Mary Cabell, Emma and Mat Thomas. Messrs. Jim Al Caldwell, Chat Browning, Geo. Atkins, Ivat Patterson, Rich Griston, Leslie States, Clarence Pace, John Green Sublett, Will Vaughn, Geo. Todd, Dick Skyles, Lucian Turner, Joe and Will Johnston, Albert Morcer, Chat Dobney, Ed Rodgers, Bert and Al Flowers, Tilden and Clarence Calhoun.

JOPPA.

A. fine rain fell this week which was a great benefit to late pastures. We have a fine crop of mast. We think the stock law would be a good thing. We know of a boundary of woods that people bring their hogs and turn on it. The owner might make several dollars if he had a stock law. Mrs. Pink Coffey is still in very feeble health. Eld. Z. T. Williams and daughter passed through here en route home from Paris where they had been attending the State Convention. Prof. R. E. Montgomery was at home Saturday and Sunday. Mrs. Vina Royce visited her sister at Gadsby last Saturday and Sunday for revision weekly.

It was Mr. A. M. Turk's first visit to Columbia in fifty years. He found my changes, but was greatly delighted with his visit.

LOCAL JOTTINGS.

It is less than one month until the election.

Three thousand people heard Gov. Beckham at Monticello.

Col. E. Butler has our thanks for a supply of very fine eating apples.

Quite a number of horses have been entered for the sale since the list was published.

The First National Bank, this place, will be open for business the 15th of this month.

Mr. John N. Murrell has decided to raise the front part of his residence another story.

W. L. Strange has 6 head of two-year-old steers for sale and one dry cow, located, Ky.

The first degree in Masonry was conferred upon Mr. Talmage Smith last Friday night.

Mr. W. L. Walker has had the front of this store built and repaired, giving it a lively appearance.

Only a few people in town last Monday were buying and talking of the Southern market. We understand that Mr. J. H. Young and Mr. Van Dusen have gathered quite a number and are still buying. Prices are ruling high.

Several Adair county mule dealers are buying and talking of the Southern market. We understand that Mr. J. H. Young and Mr. Van Dusen have gathered quite a number and are still buying. Prices are ruling high.

The contractors who have been putting up a residence for Dr. W. T. Grison, this county, have the building about completed. Those who have seen it report that it will be a handsome place of property, a credit to the vicinity in which it is located.

Mr. Jas. Garrett, Jr., will build a cottage opposite his residence some distance in the near future. If other residents who have low would get up cottages they could certainly be rented. They would invite people from a distance to remove to our town.

Circuit court in this district opened at Tompkinsville last Monday, Judge W. W. Jones on the bench. The grand jury was instructed early in the morning and the remainder of the day was taken up by candidates for office and their representatives.

Mr. Geo. W. Robertson has sold the house and lot in this place, where Mr. S. D. Barbee now resides, to Mr. H. A. A. of Gradyville, for $10,000. Mr. Walker will remove to Columbia the 10th of next month. Mr. Robertson also sold the same party a lot, near the Columbia Roller Mill, for $300.

Mr. B. K. Young and wife, who have been visiting here, returned to Cumberland county last Thursday. While on their way, Mr. Young was bitten by a snake. Just how he came in contact with the reptile is not reported but it is supposed that he was making an effort to kill it. It is supposed that serious will result from the bite.

We understand the Masonic lodge, recently organized at Point Hill, this county, is doing work at every meeting. Mr. John D. Lowe, who is a member of Columbia Lodge, No. 36, witnessed the new lodge confer the first degree two weeks ago and heretofore that it was done nicely.

Mr. Ward, the editor of the Greensburg Record, has a hard time in holding a printer. Week before last he announced that he had plenty of help—had secured a city printer. Last week he stated that he still wanted a good printer, that the last one could not stand properly—filled his side with his own paper and took his departure.

Mrs. Malissa Christie, formerly of Camp Green county, has become a resident of Columbia, having removed to her property recently purchased of Mr. W. H. Jones, situated near the Park. She has an excellent lady and becomes a resident of Columbia in order to give her youngest son, Norman, the advantage of our institutions of learning.

As an evidence of Mr. Rollin Hurl's popularity in Adair county over six hundred voters signed his petition in a few hours last Saturday. Five hundred names had to be secured in order that Mr. Hurl's name might go upon the ballot to be voted for in this district for Circuit Judge. Mr. N. M. Tust carried the petition to Frankfort.

Mr. C. C. Christie is erecting a handsome residence near Camp Knox. He was in Columbia a few days ago and purchased brick for the same. Mr. Christie is an enterprising young man, a prosperous farmer and his success in all his undertakings is well known. He has already selected the young lady who will become his home-brother.

MISS BRADSHAW.

I have just returned from Cincinnati and Louisville where I purchased a beautiful line of fall and winter millinery. I ask all the ladies of Adair and adjoining counties to see and price my goods before buying elsewhere.

MISS BRADSHAW.

CLAIMED BY DEATH.

Mrs. Minnie May Jeffries, the Beloved Wife of Horace Jeffries, Passes Over the River.

A TRIBUTE TO A GOOD WOMAN.

Last Saturday afternoon about the hour of 12:30 the spirit of this highly respected and much beloved lady took its flight. Last April she contracted pneumonia which terminated into pulmonary trouble and she gradually grew weaker until the end came. During her long illness the loving husband, devoted sisters and friends watched by her bedside, tenderly administering to every want, hoping and praying that relief might come. But earthly assistance could only soothe the patient's affliction, and she calmly passed into the mysterious beyond at the hour above named.

She was a daughter of Robt. and Sarah Marshall, who resided near Glenview and was born February 7, 1818. At the age of 18 she married her husband, united with the Methodist Church and later attached herself to the Christian Church, and was a devoted member of that denomination when her life work ended.

The funeral services were conducted by Eld. Z. T. Williams last Sunday forenoon, the church being crowded with relatives and friends. The interment was in the city cemetery.

The widow of the deceased, December 18, 1901, was beautiful. For weeks her every action showed that she was greatly distressed, and as occasionally came to his place of business, grief was plainly pictured upon his countenance. Less than two years ago he and his devoted wife entered their comfortable little home with a good business here in Columbia, a bright future seemed inevitable. But just as the dawned night came on, God pity and sustain him in this the darkest hour of his life.

We meet around the bedside of the dying and we speak of the separation, but let us be consoled by the lines of Lord Lytton:

"There is no death! The stars go down
And bright in heaven above
And bright in heaven below
They shine forever more."

"There is no death! The leaves may fall,
The flowers may fade and pass away
They only wait through winter hours,
The season of the day."

Wherever he came he left a bright, warm heart to pure and saintly wife, and he was in that world of light, to dwell in freedom.

And ever he said, though unseen,
The dear immortal spirit tread;
For all the benighted nations
Lies—there is no death!"

J. E. M.

Dr. Geo. M. Page, aged eighty-seven, one of the best known citizens in Southern Kentucky, died at Lucas, Harrodsburg, last week. He was a native of Virginia, coming to Kentucky in his early manhood and locating at Columbia. Here he married Miss Emma Frances, daughter of late Thos. H. Fraser. He was a man of scholarly attainments, well posted in history and literature, and was a member of the Louisville Historical and Genealogical Society. He was survived by five children, three sons and two daughters.

There was a lively school election in East Columbia district last Saturday afternoon. Mr. John Pickett was voted for in the district of Miss Fannie Smythe and Mr. W. H. Wilson was a candidate in favor of Miss Salie Rey Marcum. When the polls closed at six o'clock it was announced that the first of the week was won by Pickett had won by five votes. In West Columbia there was but little excitement, Mr. W. L. Walker winning by twelve or fifteen votes. There was no bad feeling engendered in either race, the best of feeling prevailing.

The people of Adair County will be glad to learn that Mr. Z. M. Staples and Mr. G. W. Robertson will again engage in the mill business, having purchased of Mr. W. E. Myers two-thirds interest in the Columbia Roller and saw mill. The firm business will not commence until the first of January, but in the meantime Messrs. Staples and Robertson will buy timber and grain for next year's business. There is not a better miller in the State than Mr. Myers and with the other members of the firm to do the outside building, there is not a doubt but a splendid business awaits them.

WANTED—Some good Southern horses and mules.

A. HUNN.

If you want a good fertilizer for wheat try the Allin Bone and Potash. Sold by A. W. Robinson.

A STATESMAN SPEECH.

The governor of Ohio, Louis B. Q. Brown, in a speech delivered at the annual conference of the National Association of Manufacturers, addressed in favor of the claims of either party during the present campaign. Attacking measures, not men, from personal considerations, it was the effectiveness to the calm and truthful presentation of the facts as they actually exist. Upon them the Democratic party can well afford to stand, confident of deserved success in November.

He points out that, as a result of Democratic administration, the State for the first time in eighteen years, is free from debt; the surplus in its treasury is large; its penitentiaries self-supporting; its charitable and penal institutions enlarged, improved and successfully conducted; its public schools prosperous and with the highest average per capita; all property, tangible and intangible, so assessed that the burden of taxation are fairly distributed between the citizen and corporations, and a reduction of the present rate of ad valorem taxation made possible. In a paragraph, Mr. McQuinn sketches the contrasting record of the Republican party, which, while in control of affairs in Kentucky bankrupted the State, wantonly disregarded and trampled under foot the most cherished principles of constitutional government, inaugurated assassination as a means to accomplish political purposes, and brought the Commonwealth to the verge of a bloody revolution. Take your choice.—Louisville Times.

MARY MURRELL.

The twelve year old daughter of Mrs. Sarah Murrell, departed this life September 19, 1908. During an illness of several weeks she bore her great suffering with remarkable patience. She was an unusually bright child, with a sweet and amiable disposition that won her many friends, and with hearty devotion with great humility bow to the Divine will, knowing that God doeth all things well and that our loss is but her gain. The bereaved mother and sisters have the sympathy of the entire community.

A FRIEND.

Through these columns, I wish to thank my many friends for the great kindness shown me during the last illness of my daughter, Mary. Mrs. SARAH MURRELL.

MISS MAGGIE MURRELL.

The life of Maggie, though short, had its mission and she leaves behind a memory that will be breathed into each, and whose influence will long be felt as it passes down the corridors of time. She was the only child of her fond parents, and her death leaves them bowed with the deepest grief. Only those who know the full strength of parental affection realize the full force of such a blow. Her sickness was one of suffering, but every effort was made to relieve her pain, hoping against hope the restoration of health, but medical skill was baffled in every attempt and kind and willing hands had left nothing possible undone.

Maggie was a bright, obedient and obedient child, the idol of her parents, a favorite of her associates. The golden bowl is broken and Maggie has gone to try the realities of the great beyond. To the family we extend our deepest sympathy, and may He who alone can heal the wounds, bind up the broken hearted, and in the great ingathering day, give them beauty for ashes and the oil of joy for the spirit of mourning.

Mrs. H. E. VANADORFF.
Miss ELSTE HOPPER.

An exchange says we are all poor "critters." Not long ago a prominent merchant in a neighboring town received a letter from a large distillery firm asking for a list of names who might be interested in the literature issued by the firm setting forth the merits of a new brand of whisky and promising him a commission on all sales. The merchant being somewhat of a joker himself, sat down and made out a list of the prominent prohibitionists of the place and forwarded it. He forgot all about the matter until a month later, when it was called to his attention by a letter from the distillers enclosing a draft of $16.00 with thanks for the list, which had been found peculiarly remunerative.

A love Letter.

Would not interest you if you were looking for a guarantee of love, success or riches. One of our friends, a young man, I understood, with a very new for a year, but he had a real cure. It was a real cure on earth. See at All Drug Stores.

ALARM IN ENEMY'S CAMP.

There seems to be a "skewed" feeling creeping over the wiser and more calculating republicans of the country. The signs of the times are not entirely to their liking and they are even frank enough to indulge publicly in suppositions that indicate a lack of supreme confidence in the outcome of the campaign of 1904.

The situation in New York city is a cause for republican anxiety. Under the name of fusion—their only chance for success—they are seeking to keep the city from polling its usual great majority for a democratic ticket. They realize that should the democrats win Greater New York against fusion combine, the state of New York will almost surely go into the democratic electoral column next year. That prospect is not pleasing to President Roosevelt or his party managers. They have great dread of the national effects of a Tammany victory in New York city this fall than of any other political event on the card.

Maryland's condition is also troubling them. Senator Gorman has pulled the democracy there into fighting and winning shape. The chances are all for democracy there.

There is an uneasy feeling as to Massachusetts. Governor Bates—whose nomination can not be avoided, is not so popular as before he was tried in the gubernatorial chair. He has alienated a host of conservative republicans and another large loss of voters is promised because of the growing demand of Massachusetts manufacturers and workmen for free coal, and free raw materials. Massachusetts is debatable ground. Socialism is growing there at the expense of the republican vote. Should the state go democratic in November it will make a broad breach in the national republican bulwarks.

The Washington Evening Star cautiously but clearly intimates that Ohio is giving cause for worry to the republican managers. Even if Tom Johnson should fail of election it seems certain he is going to cut the republican majority in the state to a dangerously low figure and make the campaign of 1904 one of great difficulty and doubt.

It furthermore admits that the democrats have the better prospect of winning in Nebraska this year and supposes that would mean its sure loss in the presidential election of next year also. These signs of perturbation among the republicans should be cheering to Democrats. But there is another thing growing out of them that should warn and work wisdom among democrats—and that is the fact that the strongest hope the republicans can have for victory next year is confusion of counsel and discord of aim and action on the part of the democracy.—Atlanta Constitution.

Upset All Predictions.

J. F. Hughes was a candidate for county treasurer at Du Pont, Ga., but it was predicted that he could not live six months. He was afflicted with a running abscess on his lung and entered for three years; his life trembled in the balance when he heard of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption. He tried it and was finally cured and thus upset the predictions of all who knew him. It is positively guaranteed for Throat and Lung trouble by All Drugists. Price 50c and $1.00 Trial bottles free.

Broke into His House.

S. Le Quin, of Cavendish, Vt., was robbed of his customary health by invasion of Chronic Consumption. When Dr. King's New Life Pills broke into his house, his trouble was arrested and now he is entirely cured. They are guaranteed to cure. See at All Drug Stores.

Confessions of a Priest.

Rev. John S. Cox, of Wake, Ark., writes: "For years I suffered from Yellow Jaundice. I consulted a number of physicians and tried all sorts of medicine, and got no relief. Then I began the use of Electric Bitters and feel that I am now cured of a disease that held me in grasp for twelve years." If you want a reliable medicine for Liver and Kidney trouble, stomachic disorder or general debility, get Electric Bitters. It's guaranteed by All Drugists. Only 50c.

Some of the Federal office-holders in Kentucky are beginning to squeal. An assessment has been levied upon for campaign purposes. Kicking will do no good. They will have to "shell out" or "step down and out." The assessment is in violation of the Civil Service laws, but this cuts no figure with the Republicans.

Apparently the safest security for long life is the possession of a government pension. The oldest veteran of the army has just reached the one-hundred mark.
